a. Self-Defense Classes

➢ EVP Smith informed that PAC was trying to get Self Defense Classes off the ground and working with GSUPD. Needed 20 students to sign up and join so they could set up a time for it.

b. Boxes around Campus

➢ EVP Smith let students present at the meeting that yellow boxes around the campus are actually in charge of those boxes. Wanted to make boxes more seen on campus.

c. Focus Groups

➢ Leading this conversation, EVP Smith enlightened the senate that SGA University Wide was working towards having a focus group made up of students (non-student leaders) from each campus to give information on the state of Georgia State University. Topics to include are; The U.W Tradition, Transportation, Safety, Academics, Parking and Financial aid.

➢ Dir Johnson questioned the general purpose of the focus groups and EVP Smith said it was to see how these topics impact Student Life.

➢ EVP Patel asked could PAC member joined

➢ Dir. Johnson questioned how he could research the already done work from previous administrations.

➢ Dir Johnson pressed concern that SGA should not be working on transportation when there is MARTA for students. Dir Johnson feared that this would cause needless traffic and would be a waste of student fees. EVP Smith rebutted that since students should not have to take public transportation if they are paying fees.
Dir. Johnson stated that students have the city to their advantage and should make use of it and insisted that the only campuses in need of intercampus transportation was the Newton and Alpharetta campuses.
